

March 17, 2008

Muy Bueno

Mi Chula's Good Mexican Opens

Spending time with your best pallies always lifts your spirits. Throw in some delicious grub — even better. Add a couple of drinks, and we're talkin' real good times.

Seriously feeling the need to be unserious?

Then head to Mi Chula's Good Mexican in Southlake, where restaurateur Joey Shashy's (Uncle Julio's originator) mission is all things good.

The upscale Mexican concept is fresh, fast, fun, and utterly delicious. Simply order at the counter — we highly recommend the queso (good or extra good) — grab a signature frozen prickly pear margarita, and let the friendliest staff ever do the rest.

All of their authentic, homemade recipes are outstanding, but we especially love the fish tacos, mesquite grilled ribs, and mouth-watering sopapillas and churros.

Bottom line? It's all good.

Mi Chula's Good Mexican, 1431 East Southlake Boulevard, suite 551, Southlake (817-756-6920 michulas.com).