

Eats

Savoring the best of dining, drinking and shopping with the foodies of The Dallas Morning News

Mi Chula's Good Mexican opens in Southlake

Dallas businessman and restaurateur Joey Shashy is Lebanese-American -- but he also comes from El Paso, so he knows about good Tex-Mex. He is, after all, the man behind the wildly successful Uncle Julio's restaurant chain. And in his private life, he's an excellent amateur cook who makes Lebanese cookies for his friends every holiday season. This is a guy who loves good food.

Joey has just opened a new "upscale fast casual Mexican concept" in the Shops of Southlake. Mi Chula's Good Mexican is located at 1431 Southlake Blvd., and it features family-friendly counter service with tableside delivery.

Among the dishes on the menu (which is displayed on four 42-inch LCD TV monitors) are fish tacos, guisada, asada steak, tamales, borracho beans, shrimp fajitas, chicken or beef fajitas, veggie fajitas, and spinach and roasted vegetable quesadillas, along with signature margaritas and other drinks.

Mi Chula's is open daily, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.; call 817-756-6920 or 877-642-4852 for more information.

(DMN file photo of Joey Shashy by Randy Eli Grothe)

---

Posted by Joyce Harris