MI CHULA'S OFFERS FAJITAS AND MARGS

Mi Chula's is here.

And it lives up to its billing. The new Southlake restaurant is the latest brainchild of some former Uncle Julio's partners.

It's like a Julio's gone contemporary and casual, with counter ordering but full flavors.

Fajitas Yucatan ($13.95) come with a side order of spicy, applewood-smoked pork ribs. Gourmet chicken tamales ($7.95) deserve to be topped with excellent green sauce.

To wash it down, there are prickly-pear frozen margaritas.

It's a cozy, sleek cafe. Look for it at 1431 E. Southlake Blvd., in front of Central Market; 817-756-6920, www.michulas.com.

■ Far north Fort Worth will soon get a Kincaid's Hamburgers.

But it already has a genuine grocery grill: Harold's Foods.

Harold's is an old-school meat market on Farm Road 156, making first-rate homestyle burgers weekdays at lunch. The third-pound burger ($3.39 in a combo with fries) is full of fresh, lean flavor.

Harold's also serves buffalo burgers ($4.19), barbecue and a daily plate lunch — pork chops, for example.

The grill is open weekdays, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.; 1600 Watauga Road, one block south of Western Center Boulevard, Blue Mound, call 817-232-1700.

■ Holidays are Vance Godbey's days.

The sprawling Southern

More Christmas options next week.

■ OC Burgers, a California burger grill, is open at 6300 Denton Highway (U.S. 377 N) in Watauga.

The burgers, worthy of their Orange County lineage, are charbroiled and served with fresh toppings. The grill is open daily, 7 a.m.-10 p.m.; call 817-428-4290.

■ Lightcatcher Winery in western Tarrant County now has a cafe open Fridays and weekend afternoons.

The winery is at 6925 Confederate Park Road (Farm Road 1886); call 817-237-2626, www.lightcatcher.com.
